

International Forum

"Migration Policy and Protection of Foreigners between the US and Japan"

《Date》 November 4, 2025

(Tuesday) 1:00 PM - 4:10 PM

(10-minute break included. Conducted in English with Japanese explanations; Q&A in both Japanese and English)

《Format》 Hybrid format
Saga University Economics Building 3, 2nd Floor Conference Room

Please bring your own laptop to the classroom, Online participation via Teams also available

《Eligibility》 Saga University students, faculty, staff, and the public

Free of charge and open to all

《Contents》

Part 1: Comparative Analysis of Japanese and U.S. Foreigner Policies

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

- ◆ Program Overview
- ◆ Legal Support for Foreigners in Japan
- ◆ Lecture on U.S. Law by Overseas Professor
"Using AI to Increase Access to Legal Services for Asylum Seekers"

Part 2: American Legal Education

2:40 PM - 4:10 PM

- ◆ Demonstration of Legal Database
- ◆ American Mock Law School: Socratic Method Experience

《Coordinator Program Overview》

Professor Chizuko Hayakawa

Faculty of Economics,
Graduate School of
Regional Design, Saga
University

《Lecture》 Part 1: U.S. Law Lecture: "Using AI to Increase Access to Legal Services for Asylum Seekers"; Part 2: Law School Mock Class: Socratic Method Experience

Professor Huyen Pham

Professor and Associate Dean, Texas A&M University College of Law

《Lecture • Japanese Explanation》 Part 1: Legal Support for Foreigners in Japan

Ms. Satoko Tomita
Head of International Affairs Division, Japan Legal Support Center (JLSC) Headquarters, Foreign Residents Support Center (FRESC) / Attorney at Law

Part 2: WestlawNext Demonstration
Mr. Shigenari Ueda
Thomson Reuters, Co.
Senior Training & Consulting Manager

Hosted by Saga University Economics Society

Application Pending for the 2025 Saga University Researcher International Exchange Support Program (Second Round)

Inquiries: Saga University Economics Society Secretariat (TEL: 0952-28-8452, Contact: Mr. Aiura)